We need drone footage of all the stronghold glare as around ottawa, not just downtown. Here is a report on what's really going on...

At the Command Post last night around 11:30pm I had a conversation with the guy leading this protest. Here are the main points. I WAS SHOCKED! He said this protest is of BIBLICAL proportions...

1. Police are in contact with the convoys and agreed that only a small amount of the trucks would be allowed into the city and on specific roads. So what you see downtown is only a fraction of the trucks in Ottawa. It is not the whole group.
2. There are numerous holding points inside and outside of the city where trucks are parked holding and being support by a large support group feeding and housing them.
3. Farmers all around the city have plowed their fields allowing the truckers to park there and hold.
4. The truckers who came are not planning on leaving on Sunday are they are prepared for the long haul.
5. They are waiting for the government to respond
6. I said this is no longer a protest but a siege....His eyes opened up and he said "YES"!

Coventry baseball field is one of the holding points inside the city. Last night I wanted to confirm so I drove past and into the parking lot. My jaw dropped. I say parked in tight lines were about 750 to 1000 trucks sitting waiting. The pics below are of the parking lot...

We need this footage if you are able...
